A Symposium Honoring Jonathan Dorfman's Career and Leadership of SLAC
Panofsky Auditorium, SLAC
July 24, 2008

Bulletin for Registered Participants

Dear Symposium Participants,

We are very pleased that you have registered for Let's Celebrate Jonathan! and look forward to seeing you at SLAC for a memorable day. The program for the day's activities can be found at <http://www-conf.slac.stanford.edu/Jonathan/default.asp>

The program begins in Panofsky Auditorium at 9:00AM on Thursday, July 24. We're expecting a full house, so we urge you to register and enter in time to secure a seat. Overflow seating will be available in the nearby KIPAC Auditorium.

Coffee and Registration will begin at 8:00 AM, in the Auditorium Foyer. Directions to SLAC, and a map of the SLAC site showing available parking areas and the location of Panofsky Auditorium, are attached below. Identification (your driver's license will do) is required to pass through the guard gates at the SLAC entrance.

A no-host lunch will be available at the SLAC Linear Café during the lunch break.

Following further talks in Panofsky Auditorium in the early afternoon, the Symposium moves outside to the SLAC Green, first for cake and ice cream, then for a final series of talks and personal recollections. The talks will be presented inside a large tent on the Green, so protection from the sun should not be an issue, although securing a seat may be!

For those who have made plans to attend the dinner at the Stanford Faculty Club, the reception will begin at 6:30 PM. Just prior to dinner, Stanford President John Hennessy will make some remarks. Following dinner, there will be speeches and additional remarks and presentations.

A map showing the location of the Stanford Faculty Club is also attached, along with a guide to nearby campus parking. Please be sure to allow some time to find parking.

We look forward to seeing you soon!
